EMERGENCY UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE RESURFACES

Plans to implement Unemployment Insurance in the Territory will be advancing in this new year Premier and Minister for Finance Dr. the Hon. Natalio Wheatley has promised.

The need for Unemployment Insurance became apparent during the COVID 19 pandemic; especially during the Government instituted lockdowns. At that time both businesses and individuals struggled to make ends meet and Government had to foot a stimulus payment via the Social Security Board to help curb the situation.

As a result discussions commenced about ensuring that there is a dedicated system in place to help persons during times of work loss.

In keeping with the process to move forward with such an idea Premier Wheatley announced in his 2023 Budget Address that efforts to explore this initiative will commence this year. He stated: "the Government will... engage stakeholders on plans to introduce unemployment benefits, as well as explore measures to extend Social Security coverage to more workers in the informal economy."

Back in 2020 Government members announced that the Unemployment Insurance extension of the Social Security system was going to be in place by summer 2021. However, this was not the case.

The announcement that the Territory would have had Unemployment Insurance by 2021 was made by former Minister for Natural Resources Labour and Immigration Hon. Vincent Wheatley while he was a guest on the Honestly Speaking radio programme on 3 November 2020.

At that time Hon. V. Wheatley stated that the unemployment insurance legislation would pave the road for the Territory to soon have unemployment benefits for residents who for one reason or another are unable to work.

Unemployment benefit or unemployment insurance is a benefit that is offered in many countries and in response to calls for this service the former Minister announced that Government was aiming to have the insurance at no additional cost to residents.

While explaining the plan, Hon. Wheatley said, "What we will have in place by next year is a proper unemployment benefit. So that when a pandemic or hurricane comes and persons cannot work there is funding there for specifically that time of crisis. It is not in place now, it has been spoken about for the last 20, 26 years. It will be in place by next year. We have no choice..."

"We have to ensure we put things in place, a proper unemployment benefit," Hon. V. Wheatley added. He also mentioned that the government was striving to have the new insurance cost absorbed into the current social security deduction.

"The thinking will be not to increase the current [contribution percentage]. Use the existing, reconfigure and redistribute it. I think its eight and a half percent now, it may probably remain there ...we don't want to add a burden on anybody," the former Minister explained.

As it relates to the proposed timeframe the Minister announced, "January (2021 might be too early I might say by summer (2021). It needs time to get seed monies in place.... It needs time for the money to accumulate. It needs to have some money there before you kick it off... It is critical...I'm going to make it happen."

As it relates to funding the unemployment benefits Hon. V. Wheatley explained that government will not take money from another source to fund the unemployment insurance; "the money has to be generated," he declared.

STATUTORY BOARDS UNDER PROBE

The Government is moving forward with the review of the various Statutory Boards as was recommended in the Commission of Inquiry (Col) report under the heading B24. In its attempt to deliver on this recommendation, Cabinet recently appointed former Director of the BVI Social Security Board Antoinette Skelton as the reviewer.

During a recent meeting the Cabinet approved the appointment of Ms. Skelton; who will be tasked with reviewing B24 recommendations of the Col Report. It was noted that the Social Security Board is the only Statutory Body Ms. Skelton will not be reviewing, and her appointment will span six months from 15 December 2022 until 30 April 2023.

As part of her review, Skelton would be required to assess and determine the overall level of governance and the steps required to remedy any detected deficiencies.

Recommendation B24 was one of the suggestions made by Commissioner of Inquiry Sir Gary Hickinbottom in his Col Report. This particular recommendation called for a review of all statutory boards. This review, Sir Hickinbottom stated, was to establish the extent to which those boards are behind in their obligations to submit timely financial reports and audits. He said that it would also assess the extent to which those boards are applying policies intended to promote good governance such as a conflict-of-interest policy and a political interference policy.

Sir Hickinbottom stated that Recommendation B24 aims to also examine the extent to which statutory boards follow a due diligence policy. In his suggestion of how the review should proceed the Commissioner of Inquiry noted: "The review should be undertaken by a senior public officer and should identify what steps need to be taken to remedy any deficiencies and a timescale in which these steps should be accomplished, in the form of a report to the Governor. The review should be completed within six months."

ESHS NEW BUILDINGS GENERATE OPTIMISM & ENTHUSIASM

The high school shift school system which became the norm following the campus destruction by deadly hurricanes Irma and Maria in 2017 has finally come to an end. The situation which has seen many complaints over the years is now over thanks to the opening of the new school buildings at the Elmore Stoutt High School compound on Tuesday 3 January.

The grand opening brings to a close the school development project launched by the Andrew Fahie administration in tandem with the «Move With A Purpose» initiative aimed at getting donations from persons in the community in aid of the project.

While expressing his joy that the new school was finally open Premier and Minister for Finance Dr. the Hon. Natalio Wheatley announced that it was a red letter day in the Territory he recalled that the students had to attend school in shifts after the hurricanes destroyed the main public high school campus.

While pointing out that the shift system spanned what seemed like an extended period Dr. Wheatley said that it was a matter of situation and circumstances, "lest we forget we were short on options at the time because of the extent of the devastation wreaked by the 2017 hurricanes," the Premier noted.

Hon. Wheatley who served as Minister of Education when the project commenced also used the opportunity to pay tribute to the vision of former leader Andrew Fahie: "I must say that I also thank our Creator that we had a Minister of Finance and a former Minister of Education, who was so supportive... I speak [of] none other than Mr Andrew Fahie; and just in case you are wondering whether his name would be spoken this morning, there's no way that I would allow his role and contribution to not be acknowledged this morning."

The opening ceremony was referred to as a momentous occasion and Minister for Education Hon. Sharie de Castro explained that it marked the end of an era: "The time has come, after five school years and one term, tomorrow the full complement of staff and students of Elmore Stoutt High School will teach and learn on the same campus for full-day school for the first time since the storms of 2017."

Desha Skelton, ESHS Student Government President also corroborated the sentiments that the opening of the new building was a long awaited day and required celebrating. Skelton said: "Now, after five school years and one term, we finally have the opportunity to experience a full day's worth of school where we have the time and space to access a more complete high school experience."

Meanwhile, Chair of the Recovery and Development Agency (RDA) Ronnie Skelton announced that this was a project that filled him with pride. "I have built many things in this country, from power stations to hospitals, to clinics and commercial buildings but this one, the 'Elmore Stoutt High School Redevelopment Project' gives me the most pride. I am so happy to be a part of the RDA Team, which was involved in this phase of the construction," he stated.

RDA'S FUTURE REMAINS UNCERTAIN

Chairman of the Virgin Islands Recovery and Development Agency (RDA) Ronnie Skelton announced that he is not in favour of the decision to wind-down the Agency and wrap up its existence.

The RDA Chair made his views on the matter known on Tuesday 3 January during the opening ceremony of the Elmore Stoutt High School Redevelopment Project at the school's premises.

Mr. Skelton told the gathering, which included Premier Natalio Wheatley and other members of government, that terminating the Agency was a bad idea: "One thing any government should not do is disband the RDA. You will be making a mistake. That's my advice, it's free, you don't have to pay for it."

While encouraging the government to make necessary tweaks and changes as opposed to shutting the Agency down the RDA Chairperson said: "with supervision, with regulation, whatever you have to do to make it work and make it function in the interest of this country. Whether I am there or not it doesn't make a difference."

The comments of the RDA head comes following Cabinet's 5 October decision to bring the Agency to a close in 2025 despite Skelton's request for an extension to 2026.

In its report on the matter Cabinet noted that it received a request from the Chairman of the RDA to extend the lifespan of the Agency for an additional three (3) years. This request would have seen the RDA ending its existence on 31 December, 2026.

It was noted that Skelton sought the extension in order to allow for completion of projects already in progress or that are scheduled to commence in 2023. However, it was noted that while the Premier did grant the RDA an extension he did not allow the organization to stay open until 2026. Instead Hon. Wheatley announced that the RDA is given an extension of two years and eight months; and wrapping up operations on 31 December 2025.

Additionally, the Premier instructed that the "RDA should not take on any new project where the completion date would exceed the extended life of the Agency." Furthermore, the Premier said that the RDA must develop and execute a plan to transfer its knowledge and skills to the Department of Public Works, and any other relevant agency in collaboration with the Premier's Office.

The RDA is also required to develop and present to Cabinet a winding-up plan in conjunction with the Premier's Office by 30th November 2024.

Cabinet's call for the disbandment of the RDA comes three years after residents announced during various public meetings that the Agency needed to be terminated. The calls for the RDA to close came during a series of public meetings held in August 2019 by the Government to discuss the UK Loan Guarantee.

The calls followed the notion that the RDA was handling projects that could be handled by the government and usurping certain authority.

PREMIER OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS AND MINISTER OF FINANCE (Part 1 of 2)

HON. NATALIO D. WHEATLEY

OPENING CEREMONY - ESHS CAMPUS REDEVELOPMENT PROJECT
3 JANUARY, 2023 – 10 AM

A pleasant good morning is extended to all the beautiful people of these beautiful Virgin Islands, especially the principal, administrators, educators and students of the Elmore Stout High School (ESHS).

Today we celebrate another proud milestone in our journey of recovery from Hurricanes Irma and Maria, and in the continued development of our Virgin Islands. But most importantly, we celebrate the fact that our secondary school students, teachers, administrators and principal on Tortola, are returning to their rightful home and a facility that is fit for purpose and conducive to teaching and learning – a facility that they deserve to have.

The completion of these buildings for the ESHS campus is a monumental achievement for our people. It is yet another testament to what we can achieve by working together, having a positive attitude, and maintaining confidence in the capabilities of our people.

Upon being elected in 2019, this was one of the top priorities for me and for the administration of which I was a part. And I give praise to the Most High God that we have been able to get to this point despite the obstacles.

I want to thank the students, teachers and parents for their patience. We know it was not easy in the temporary accommodations. And yes, the temporary arrangements had our students in a disadvantageous position, especially where they were not able to have full time classes.

That building was not built to accommodate a school. But, lest we forget, we were short on options at the time because of the extent of the devastation that was wreaked by the 2017 hurricanes. And, therefore, I wish to thank Clarence Thomas Limited for making that space available when we were short on options, so that our children could continue to have access to education albeit that the situation was not perfect.

I must recognize the agitation of the teachers and parents in helping us get to this point. Early in this administration, the Ministry of Education, the RDA, and Construction for Change starting working on a master plan and conceptual designs for a grand junior high school that would be very expensive and that would take too long to build.

Teachers and parents who were in the unsuitable conditions at Pasea made it clear in no uncertain terms that we needed immediate and urgent action.

I called the then Minister of Finance, seeking his support, and I must say that I also thank our Creator that I had a Minister of Finance and a former Minister of Education who was so supportive. I speak of none other than Mr. Andrew Fahie, and just in case you were wondering whether his name would be spoken this morning, there is no way that I would allow his role and contribution to not be acknowledged this morning.

It was through our collaboration that the move with a purpose project was birthed!

We must also recognize the positive contributions of the Financial Secretary Mr. Jeremiah Frett and the team at the Ministry of Finance, who made it possible for the financing to be realized for this project. Dr. Drexel Glasgow and the Project Unit were intimately involved. We must also recognize the hard work of Permanent Secretary Dr. Marcia Potter and the team at the Ministry of Education for their role in guiding and accelerating this project. I also could not stand here and not acknowledge the work of Miss Lorna Stevens, who is a stellar public servant and a patriot for the BVI in continually advancing the interests of the education system through monumental projects such as this one. Let us also thank Mr. Anthony McMaster and the team at the Recovery and Development Agency (RDA) as they continue with their excellent track record of delivering project after project. Many said this project was impossible to achieve in the timeframe stipulated, and this project would have been achieved in September if not for a few snafus outside of the RDA's control. And I must commend the BVI private sector, our architects and our contractors, who have again done quality work and who continue to deliver. Anyone who has played a role in this project, we commend you. And I must commend the Minister Honourable De Castro for grabbing the baton and running with it. And there are other persons from within the Virgin Islands who continue to contribute to our successes and our development.

The facts bear out that our Virgin Islands people are capable of rising above and beyond all challenges. That has been our reality and our truth throughout our history. And that is why I continue to say we must have confidence in ourselves. We must not let anyone convince us that we are lesser people or that we are not capable of doing great things. We have all the proof we need to continue believing in ourselves and for us to break free of the psychological prison that some people try to keep us in.

Let us not allow anyone to rain on our parade on this occasion. Unfortunately, there are persons among us who will never have anything good to say to encourage us. Unfortunately, some persons have tried to throw cold water on our efforts and just may try to continue to throw cold water on our efforts. We should all be overwhelmingly happy at today's achievement.

Today is a lesson that we should press forward to progress and not allow the minority, even if their voices are loud, to stifle progress for whatever misguided reason. If we had allowed those negative voices to hold us back, we would never have rebuilt our high school, and our children would not have a proper place for education, as they do today.

I am saying to you – and to all of us – we must stop letting persons who do not recognize our worth, who do not share in our vision for our Virgin Islands, or who do not believe in our abilities, dictate what we should and should not do when it comes to the pursuit of national development.

Now is the time for those among us who have vision, ability and courage to step forward, and provide the guidance and inspiration to those who are looking for hope, direction and leadership.

These are the first buildings built on this Elmore Stout High School Campus since Lavity Stoutt was alive. I was able to benefit from what he and others did. And I am grateful that my children and all of our children will be able to benefit from what we have achieved together. This is not the end of our efforts. We will immediately begin planning for our cafeteria, which I hope will be named after one of my heroes, Janet Stoutt, affectionately known as Granny. And we have many more buildings to build as we seek to build our people.

This is what it is all about. Education is about preparing persons for the roles and challenges that are waiting for them on the horizon – and for nation building. And if we want to equip our youths to be the best they can be and to achieve their highest potential, then there are things that we must be doing as responsible adults – and responsible Virgin Islanders.

We must cater for and provide our young people with the tools and resources to have a quality education and to succeed in their academic preparation.

We have a responsibility to tear down as many of the barriers that stand in the way of their success – whether that means reforming how Government business is done, eliminating weaknesses and threats to our economy, or changing Constitutional arrangements that are working to our disadvantage and holding back our progress.

We also have a responsibility to inspire our young people. Our people are being bombarded on the blogs, on social media, on some of the talk shows and other forums, with narratives that they must temper their aspirations because they are from a small country; that they must know their place because we are an overseas territory; and so on.

House Of Assembly Prorogued

His Excellency the Governor, Mr. John Rankin CMG acting in accordance with the advice of the Premier and Minister of Finance, Dr. the Honourable Natalio D. Wheatley, has prorogued the House of Assembly effective Friday, December 30 until such a time a new session is appointed.

To prorogue a legislative body is to discontinue the meetings without dissolving the House. While the House is prorogued, the legislature is still constituted.

Section 84 (1) of the Virgin Islands Constitution

Order, 2007 states that the Governor may, acting in accordance with the advice of the Premier, prorogue the House of Assembly at any time, but he shall prorogue the House at least once every calendar year, except in any year when the House is dissolved.

Section 83 of the Constitution states that sessions of the House of Assembly shall be held at such times and places as the Governor, acting in accordance with the advice of the Premier, may appoint by proclamation published in the Gazette. The proclamation was published in an extraordinary edition of the Gazette on Saturday, December 31.

Section 82 of the constitution states that there shall be a session of the House from time to time, so that a period of three months does not intervene between the last sitting in one session and the first sitting of the next session.

Lynette Harrigan Awarded MBE from HM The King in the New Year's Honours List

Ms Lynette Harrigan has been awarded an MBE from His Majesty the King for her contributions to International Travel during the COVID pandemic and to the community in the British Virgin Islands.

Lynette has dedicated the last twenty-four years to supporting and building BVI's tourist industry. As a member of staff at the BVI tourist board, she has travelled globally to promote BVI tourism at numerous events and exhibitions, to the benefit of the local industry and economy. She has looked to diversify the industry and to encourage tourism all year round, beyond the peak months. This has included establishing more niche markets such as romance tourism and the incentive market, which focuses on companies that offer reward schemes to their workers including access to exclusive resorts. She has provided exceptional service to hundreds of tourists and industry partners, even during the recent challenges. During Irma she offered a lifeline to international partners providing crucial updates and in COVID she assisted tourists and locals in navigating the changing and at times complex quarantine protocols and producers. She became the 'go to' person, working exceptionally long hours to offer around the clock assistance to resolve COVID related travel issues.

Ms Lynette Harrigan

Beyond her work for the Tourist Board, Lynette also serves the wider community through her volunteer work. An example of this was following Hurricane Irma when she facilitated the safe arrival of the aid containers, which included essential baby products, medications and clothes. Lynette is also a long-standing member and a past president of the Rotary Club of Tortola and has organised numerous fundraisers for local schools, charities and vulnerable persons.

His Excellency Governor John Rankin, CMG, said: “Lynette is a great representative for the BVI. Over the last two decades, she has repeatedly gone above and beyond in her work for the BVI tourist board. She strove tirelessly throughout the pandemic to support travel, which was appreciated by both the industry and tourists. This award rightfully recognises her outstanding achievements for tourism in the BVI, particularly through COVID, as well as her contribution to the wider community.”

Ms Harrigan said: “I am grateful that His Majesty has bestowed the honour of the MBE on me and I shall continue to serve my community with pride and humility. Though each day presents new challenges, I am driven to succeed and am truly appreciative of this recognition”

His Majesty The King's Honours are awarded to individuals in recognition of their outstanding achievements. Members of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (MBE) are honoured based on achievements or service which is outstanding in its field, has delivered sustained and real impact, and which stands out as an example to others.

win for the Bryan/Roach Administration. The Premier and his delegation, which included Deputy Premier and Minister for Communications and Works, Honourable Kye Rymer and Mrs. Rymer; and Minister for Natural Resources and Labour, Honourable Melvin Turnbull and Mrs. Turnbull, attended the inauguration events which began with the inauguration mass at the St. Peter and Paul Cathedral followed by the inaugural ceremony at the Emancipation Garden and and the VI. He expressed his appreciation for the close knitted bond formed with the Bryan/Roach administration and considered it an honour to witness history. On behalf of the people of the Virgin Islands Premier Wheatley extended condolences on the recent passing of the late Dr. Roy Lester Schneider, an elected governor of the USVI who served from 1995-1999 and remembered the late Dr. Charles Wesley Turnbull, a Turnbull descendant of the Virgin Islands and governor of the USVI from 1999-2007.

Agencies Gearing Up To Provide Extended Coverage To Serve Visitors

In anticipation of increased visitors to our shores this weekend, officials from various Government agencies (Customs, Immigration, Police, Treasury, and the BVI Ports Authority) are in high gear to provide extended services to facilitate their clearance.

Special operational hours for clearance services for international marine vessels (ferries and charters) at Dog Hole on Jost Van Dyke will be from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 midnight on Saturday, 31st December. Additional officers will be deployed to facilitate processing of passengers and all agencies are putting additional measures in place to ensure an efficient processing of visitors to reduce wait times on arrival.

The West End ferry terminal will continue to provide late clearance services from 8:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Marine vessel operators are reminded that they should arrive at the West End ferry dock by 8:00 p.m. to facilitate clearance. Arrivals after 8:00 p.m. should proceed to the Road Town ferry dock for clearance up to 9:00 p.m. Operators are being urged to adhere to the instructions of the dock master at each port of entry.

Premier and Minister of Finance, who is also the Minister responsible for tourism, Dr. the Honourable Natalio D. Wheatley, convened a special meeting last evening to receive an update on plans to serve clients over the holiday weekend and for the remainder of the tourist season. Plans are being put in place to train additional officers to assist with clearance at the busier ports of entry. He expressed appreciation to the border control agencies and encouraged them to ensure a consistent level of courteous and professional service to residents and visitors.

The Premier said he is grateful that the borders are now open to facilitate easier travel for many visitors to our shores. He is looking forward to the planned transformation measures to improve the efficiency of the services provided at the ports of entry in the first quarter of 2023 which include: the small vessel/ aircraft clearance portal that will provide for advance passenger information to be submitted to facilitate pre-checks by the Immigration Department ahead of arrival; the full implementation of the Advanced Passenger Information System which among other security measures, will allow for risk-based, data driven immigration processing, allowing pre-assessments of passengers to take place which facilitates faster and smoother processing for low-risk passengers upon arrival; and the introduction of the electronic entry/departure cards during the first quarter of next year to relieve residents and visitors of the burden of having to complete these forms manually.

The Premier also noted that over the coming months the recently established Customer Service Unit of the Deputy Governor's

Office will be working closely with the border control agencies to ensure a consistent customer service experience for residents and visitors to our ports of entry.

REMARKS BY HONOURABLE SHARIE B. DE CASTRO MINISTER FOR EDUCATION, YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS OPENING CEREMONY FOR THE ELMORE STOUTT HIGH SCHOOL REDEVELOPMENT PROJECT

3 JANUARY, 2023

In 2017, the August floods and the Hurricanes Irma and Maria in September completely devastated the Elmore Stoutt High School Campus. Administration, teachers and students were displaced and dislocated. What should have been a temporary location at the CTL building seemed to have become a permanent one for far too long. Justifiable complaints about the sufficiency and safety of the space echoed loudly. Though not as immediately as expected, action had to be taken.

Thus in 2019, the reconstruction of the L. Adorothy Turnbull building was crucial to the resumption of school after the devastation of 2017. And at the end of 2022, the completion of this project, signifies a major investment in the infrastructure that supports education in the Virgin Islands. Let me level with you, this institution, the Elmore Stoutt High School, is the largest secondary school in the territory that facilitates teaching and learning for about 150 educators and just over 1400 students. Our educators and students have been desperately awaiting the rebuild and reconstruction of this facility.

Facilities make a difference. The overall building conditions of schools, including thermal comfort, indoor air quality, lighting, noise and internal design elements impact student outcomes and achievements. Naturally, as buildings age, the individual building elements, vary in life expectancy and levels of maintenance. Added to that the impact of the floods and hurricanes of 2017 on school infrastructure across the territory, especially here at ESHS was unimaginable.

Let me elaborate. For some students their entire high school journey has been impacted by dislocation, isolation, lockdowns, virtual learning and shift and hybrid schedules. Let me hammer it home. The time has come! After 5 school years and one term, tomorrow the full complement of staff and students of the Elmore Stoutt High School will teach and learn on the same campus, for full day school for the first time since the storms of 2017. In this moment, at this time, the gratitude and pride that I feel as an alumna, former teacher, now Minister, is unexplainable.

I take this opportunity to thank the Premier and Minister of Finance, Dr. the Honourable Natalio Wheatley, Financial Secretary Mr. Jeremiah Frett and the entire team at the Ministry of Finance for ensuring that the funding was available to bring this project to fruition. This investment is one that will stand the test of time as education ultimately fuels the economy.

I would like to also thank the Recovery and Development Agency for their relentless dedication and profound leadership of this project. Chairman Ronnie Skelton and the board of directors, CEO Anthony McMaster and the entire team at the RDA, especially Project Manager Floyd Stoutt, we express our immense gratitude.

To the Contractors: Quality Construction, Autland Heavy Equipment Ltd., Metro Construction, Northam and SunLeaf Construction and No Limit Construction, thank you for your unwavering commitment to executing this project in a timely and cost-effective manner. You clearly understood and appreciated the purpose of this project and you rallied around the mission in support of the educational advancement of our children and the legacy of this institution.

Students, the Virgin Islands needs every ounce of knowledge you learn here; every skill you develop and all of your passion and energy.

Now, perhaps more than ever before, an excellent education is vital to individual prosperity, the health of our democracy and the strength of our territory.

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge Principal Mrs. Vanessa Garraway, Deputy Principal Ms. Deann Parsons and Assistant Principals Mr. Cecil Hodge, Mrs. Letetia Penn-Rogers and Ms. Marsha Penn along with the Heads of Departments, Instructional Leaders, Year Heads, Teachers, Counsellors and Staff of the Elmore Stoutt High School.

Educators, as a government we still have much work to do. But your work in education will continue to help our territory to fully realize its promise and potential. You work touches every child in the Virgin Islands, regardless of their background or circumstance, and petitions them to swim outside of their comfort zones to catch the waves that'll change their lives. Principals, Teachers, Counsellors and staff, the work that you do here at ESHS, truly makes a difference.

Indeed, when we bear witness to events like the floods and storms of 2017 and the pandemic, within a five-year period, we are reminded that things happen that are completely outside of our control, yet we must remain resilient. When we recall the increase in shooting deaths of fathers and sons, we are reminded of the justice that families still yearn for. When we observe the immediate need for school maintenance and rehabilitation and even demolition, we are reminded of the work that still needs to be done, of the investments that must be made to foster healthier and safer learning environments for teachers and students. When we consider that under-resourced schools can lead to unchallenged potential, failure, drop out, over-crowded street corners and prisons, we are reminded that

Premier and Minister of Finance Dr. the Honourable Natalio D. Wheatley New Year's Day Message 2023

1 January, 2023

Rising to Our Potential as a Virgin Islands People Greetings to the beautiful people of the Virgin Islands.

As we welcome the New Year, 2023, we do so with hopes of brighter days for everyone.

The last few years have been filled with challenges, and 2022 has been no exception. These difficulties have included the loss of loved ones, whom we remember and we pray for.

But, our faith in God and our strength as a people have enabled us to weather the storms, and I am confident that whatever the future brings, our indomitable Virgin Islands spirit will continue to see us through.

Our resilience comes from the perseverance of our fore parents. This is why our people have been able to achieve so much development over the years.

The Virgin Islands has been on a journey of nation building for more than 200 years, and our progress has been due to the strengths and abilities that are within each of us – which sometimes we forget that we have. In 2023 we continue this mission; and it requires that we rediscover, reconnect with and reawaken our dormant talent, and recommit to the sacred aspirations that Virgin Islanders have carried from generation to generation.

In 2023 our collective goal must be to ensure that we rise to our fullest potential as a Virgin Islands people, inspired by the great works of those who have served before us and motivated by our responsibilities to the next generation of Virgin Islanders.

Together, with keen focus on our mission, with hard work, and faith in our God, we will make 2023 our best year ever. The future will be what we make it, so let us press forward with confidence in ourselves.

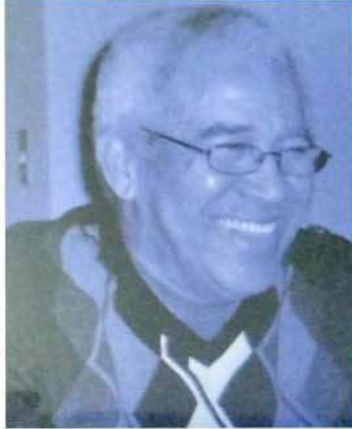

On behalf of the Government of the Virgin Islands, and on behalf of my family and myself,

I wish you all a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous 2023.

Winston Cosmo Pickering Obituary

Family and relatives are advised of the passing of Winston Cosmo Pickering on Friday, December 16, 2022 in Stafford, Virginia at the age of 82. Winston was born in Road Town, Tortola, BVI on September 25, 1940 and was preceded in death by his parents, Lilian Alice de Castro Pickering and Evelyn Walter Pickering.

Winston joined the U.S. Army in 1958 before returning home to St. Thomas where he worked at the Knud Hansen Hospital (1966-1969). He became a member of the Virgin Islands Fire Services (St. Thomas) in 1970 until his retirement in 1990 when he then moved to Virginia. He then worked for the U.S. Postal Services (1994-2006) in Virginia. Winston lived a full and blessed life filled with love from his wife, children, grandchildren and many family members.

Winston Cosmo Pickering

Winston was married to Bertha Reed Pickering for 60-1/2 years. He is survived by his daughter Jizelle Pickering (Tomomi Joe) Owens. He is preceded in death by his son Marc Antony Pickering. Winston is also survived by his grandchildren: Morgaine Alexa Clark, Danitza Montaya, Karrington and Kamryn Owens, and great-granddaughter

Rosabella Clark.

Other surviving family members include his sisters: Norma Pickering (John) Gimenez, Rose Pickering Christian, and Peggy Pickering; uncles: Alonzo, Rowan Conrad (Hazel), and Donald Lawrence de Castro; aunt, Daisy Bell; nieces: Stella Gimenez Saunders, Patricia Gimenez (Dwayne) Nash, Roxanne Swan Rogers, Sonya Swan, Myiesha Demery (Shimon) Warden, and Naeemah (Herve Louis) Kennedy; nephews: Paul (Candice), Terry (Maureen) and John (Beatrice) Gimenez; Cedric, Rory and Dorian (LaToya) Swan; Richard Sasso; and, Omar (Ashley) Kennedy. Winston is survived by many family and friends too many to mention.

The celebration of his life will be announced at a later date.

we must prioritize educational resources and manipulatives as the potential risk of not having them, of not engaging children the way that they learn, is not cheap. Through education, lives can be uplifted, transformed, and even saved.

Today, a large portion of our population, our youngest citizens, spend the majority of their days in school buildings. Our schools have been heavily scrutinized, as many of the schools across the territory are in disrepair or have been inadequately maintained. And though over the years the budget has grown increasingly limited, funding allocation for school construction and renovation must be carefully weighed. That is why about $8,250,000.00 has been allocated in the 2023 budget under capital and recurrent expenditure to assist with the construction and maintenance of schools across the territory.

In order for change to take place in our education system, there are areas that we must reimagine, adjust and introduce. As the world changes, so must education, to ensure our society remains relevant. The reality is that educators have and continue to give more. They are always asked to go above and beyond, day in and day out. Yet most recently, the floods and hurricanes of 2017 and the COVID-19 Pandemic, has demanded even more of teachers, more flexibility, more collaboration, more innovation.

I understand that a lot of the change that is needed is not only in teachers' hands. There are systematic changes that are necessary, changes in policy, changes in legislation, changes in curriculum, changes in the funding allocation for education. That is why in the 2023 budget, we committed to that change.

It Standing Finance Committee PS Potter said, "If you think education is expensive, try ignorance." That is why in the 2023 budget this government committed to giving more funding to education to address the specific areas that have been identified, especially over the last few months during stakeholder consultations. My team and I met with educators in order to understand what they consider to be some of the most pressing matters in education. We collectively came up with some top priorities that we believed to be manageable and crucial to effectively transform education in this territory. During the budget process some of these priorities were highlighted in an effort to seek additional funding to facilitate them and funding was granted.

This is because as a government we strongly believe that we cannot just build infrastructure but we must also ensure that our schools are equipped with the necessary resources and curriculum to facilitate teaching and learning. Hence, funding is now available to provide modern and effective resources for all subject areas. Thus, whether kinesthetic, visual, auditory, social, solitary, verbal or logical, our teachers will be equipped with much needed resources to diversify their delivery of instruction to achieve optimal learning.

This year funding is also available to review the existing curriculum to ensure it aligns with the tenets of S.T.E.A.M. education. This includes what subjects are offered, what topics are covered and at what developmental stage, which strategies are used and a shift in focus from content knowledge to the application of twenty first century skills. The last curriculum review was done in 2007. Therefore, we are long overdue for a review which will commence this year.

In line with the aforementioned, our immediate plans include the roll out of Innovation Hour here at ESHS. This initiative will allow students to be exposed to elements of S.T.E.A.M. such as Robotics, Coding, Artificial Intelligence, Engineering, Technology and the Arts through practical, hands-on activities that promote critical-thinking, problem-solving, collaboration and effective communication. To make this possible, the procurement of much needed S.T.E.A.M. resources as well as the training of educators is required and funding is available to facilitate this.

The record of the Standing Finance Committee Report will reflect that the Ministry of Education, Youth Affairs and Sports petitioned the Committee for an additional $1,125,000.00 to meet the needs of our school system. I remember the Deputy CEO, Mrs. Crabbe clearly articulating that the figure of $1,125,000.00 works out to $228.00 per child for the year and that she believed our children are worth it. This government concurred with that statement. Our children are worth it and I am happy to say the Ministry has been granted the additional funding requested plus a little more in the 2023 budget.

In August, at the start of the 2022 - 2023 school year at the Professional Day for Educators in the Virgin Islands, I stood in front of about 600 educators and I said, "You can't get CHANGE if you give EXACT. But if you give MORE you get CHANGE."

Thus, as a government we have committed to giving more. Therefore, educators $1,250,000.00 has been allocated in the 2023 budget to address the areas outlined above in addition to the other critical matters that you expressed were in need of urgent attention.

To bring this home to the Elmore Stoutt High School, Principals and Middle Managers, you submitted a very modest budget of about $100,000.00 to support all subject areas, inclusive of funding for initiatives such as counselling, Student Support, Rams Media, as well as the purchase of equipment for the ESHS Steel Orchestra and the ESHS Drum Corps. I am pleased to inform you that the $100,000.00 plus more has been allocated to assist in making your 2023 wish list a reality.

Ladies and gentlemen, as we build educational facilities we are also building community, building curriculum and building the character of generations! Let me end by acknowledging the man who this school is named after, Mr. Elmore Stoutt, an honourable man on whose shoulder I stand, a legend in the field of Education, a father figure and mentor to generations, a disciplinarian and a visionary who taught us all to "Can as much as you can, while you can." Mr. Stoutt, may your legacy remind us as leaders and citizens to always lead with our legacy in mind as we move Virgin Islands Education: Full S.T.E.A.M. Ahead!

GLOBAL NEWS BRIEF

STORIES SELECTED BY GIORGIO MIGLIAVACCA

CHINA COVID - Border restrictions, meetings at the highest level, daily reports of millions of infections... the world had been optimistic that the end of 2023, the third year of the coronavirus pandemic, would signal a definitive return to normality. Events in China over the past few days, however, have brought issues that everybody believed were now overcome back to the fore, triggering fears of another setback in the global battle against the Covid-19 crisis.

Those fears are based on what is known about the latest surge in cases in China, but equally by what is not known. A lack of official data on the latest wave affecting the Asian giant has fueled mistrust in Beijing and sparked speculation. The repercussions it will have on the rest of the world is the big underlying question, but every forecast or calculation is hindered by the same problem: the scarcity of statistics and scant confidence in those that are available. These are the keys to the latest incarnation of the pandemic.

Why is the Chinese population so poorly protected against Covid-19?

China's population is very poorly immunized against coronavirus for two main reasons. The first is that since the outset of the pandemic Beijing operated a strict zero-Covid policy, resorting to all possible means to prevent the spread of the virus. The result is that the population has scarcely been exposed to the pathogen and therefore natural immunity against the virus has not been widely developed. The second reason is that protection from vaccines is also low. Although over 90% of the population has had the first dose, only 69.8% of those aged over 60 have received the booster, a figure that drops to 42.4% in the over-80s. According to the 2020 census, 191 million people in China are aged over 65. The two vaccines in circulation in the country, Sinovac and Sinopharm, have also proven to be less effective than those used in other countries, such as Pfizer-BioNTech, Moderna and the Russia-developed Sputnik V. According to recent studies, the two Chinese vaccines are less than 80% effective, compared to over 90 percent for those used elsewhere in the world. [El Pais]

GERMANY - German Chancellor Olaf Scholz has led the nation's tributes to German-born Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI who died in Rome on Saturday, aged 95.

Benedict, the former Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, became the first German pope in centuries when he was elected in 2005.

He was also the first pontiff in centuries to resign, citing his frail health, while his eight-year reign was marred by the fallout from the global sex abuse scandal that rocked the Catholic Church.

Following his death, officials ordered flags to fly at half-mast across Benedict's birth state of Bavaria and hundreds of people mourned his passing at a church in his home village. [Deutsche Welle]

CROATIA - In Ivana Horvat's bakery in Zagreb, prices have long been marked both in Croatian kuna and in euros. A loaf of olive bread, for instance, costs 18.48 kuna, or €2.65 ($2.80). All the same, Horvat is skeptical about the changeover to euros. "All prices will be rounded up. Many people have mortgages and interest rates will go up. We don't know what to expect starting on January 1," she told DW ahead of the currency's introduction. Croatians appear to be split on the issue — 55% of the country's citizens are in favor of introducing the euro, according to a European Commission survey. Almost one out of two are concerned the euro will have negative consequences, and only one out of three believe the country is well-prepared. Meanwhile, 81% of Croats fear the introduction of the euro will lead to higher prices, a figure that has risen dramatically in recent years after the COVID pandemic dealt a severe blow to the Croatian economy, which is heavily dependent on tourism. [Deutsche Welle]

CHINA COVID - Western experts are urging China to disclose more data related to its current Covid wave, particularly the genome sequencing information that can be used to identify new mutant strains.

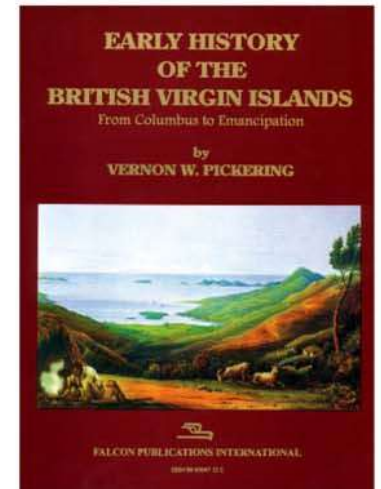

The United States, Japan, South Korea, India and Taiwan have recently reintroduced Covid tests for travelers from China, which will allow more people to fly overseas from January 8 as part of its retreat from "zero-Covid" restrictions. Foreign authorities are worried that deadly new Covid variants might have already emerged in the country's perceived as "unchecked" virus outbreaks. China has completed genome sequencing on samples from 1,142 Covid patients so far this month. About 80% of the samples were reportedly BA.5.2 and BF.7, which are more contagious but less pathogenic than previous strains. Chinese health officials said no new mutants had been identified. Since China relaxed its Covid rules on December 7, the number of Covid infections has grown exponentially. A document issued by the National Administration of Disease Control and Prevention (China's CDC) said about 248 million people, or 17.6% of the 1.4 billion population, had been infected between December 1 and 20. BARBADOS - This week the Caribbean is recognising Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Week, putting the spotlight on this problem that is ruining the lives of many young girls.

This is the second consecutive year that the region is observing this week, which is designed to highlight the issue and secure the commitment of policymakers and society in general, to address the issue as the public health priority that it is. There can be no denying that adolescent pregnancy impacts not only the health and well-being of young girls, but it has a serious negative impact on their development. The fact is, one young girl who has a pregnancy that she is not prepared for, who then has a child she has to nurture, is one too many. Our young girls must be allowed to enjoy their childhood, and therefore becoming mothers before they are mentally and physically ready, can result in depression and negatively impact their health as well as that of their children. Additionally, it can affect their educational and employment opportunities and perpetuate the intergenerational cycle of poverty that prevails in this region.

On Monday, during the launch of the week, Minister of Health and Wellness of Belize, Michel Chebat, called on Caribbean governments to work together to close the gaps that exist in our countries regarding child abuse, so that we can reduce the incidence of adolescent pregnancy. He spoke specifically of CARICOM states formulating BAHAMAS - The Securities Commission of The Bahamas took control of $3.5 billion in digital assets two days after suspending the licence of failed crypto exchange FTX and obtaining a court order putting the company in liquidation.

The regulator seized the assets under a court order on 12 Nov. because of a risk of "imminent dissipation" of the assets, the commission's executive director Christina Rolle said in an affidavit filed with the Bahamas Supreme Court. Rolle said FTX founder Sam Bankman-Fried informed the commission in a sworn examination on the same day that there "had been hacking attempts overnight and that he and [fellow FTX founder] Mr. Gary Wang spent much of the night trying to move assets out of harm's way". Annual fireworks To ring in The New Year at Trellis Bay

As is now the tradition in the Territory, hundreds of residents and visitors flocked to Trellis Bay Market and Loose Mongoose to enjoy the annual New Year's fireworks.

This year the vendors of the areas delighted all with lively parties featuring renowned local entertainers. Amidst the music and jubilation, all attention focused on the horizon for the annual fireworks display that signaled the start of 2023.

Dear Readers:

New Year's resolution ideas can be simple.. Here are some ideas: (Part 1 of 2)

Make Time for Self-Care

If you feel like you have tons of commitments that aren't always for you, carve out some solid "me" time in the year ahead by trying a new hobby—or resurrecting an old one—such as cooking, making art, or reading a good book.

Better Your Budgeting

While coming up with a budget isn't necessarily the most fun thing to do (unless you're a numbers person), not knowing where your cash has gone and being unable to cover your monthly expenses is even less so. Budgeting for social gatherings and incidentals (unexpected dinners out, new clothes, a locksmith's visit) means you won't have to change old habits too much.

Declutter Your Space

A clean home is a happy home. Quell anxiety and stress by tidying up and decluttering everything around you. Tackle the refrigerator, cabinets, messy drawers, desks, and closets. Toss everything you haven't used in six months, donate what you don't love or need, and get ready to celebrate the new year with new clarity and peace of mind.

Manage Stress

If left unchecked, stress and anxiety can go unnoticed for some time, and later manifest themselves in physical and emotional ways.1 Instead of waiting for them to rear their ugly heads, learn stress management and reduction techniques now. Some meditate, others practice yoga, and many exercise to combat stress.

Prayer for the New Year

Grant me the strength from day to day
To bear what burdens come my way.

Grant me throughout this bright New Year
More to endure and less to fear.

Help me to live that I may be
From spite and petty malice free.

Let me not bitterly complain

When cherished hopes of mine prove vain,
Or spoil with deeds of hate and rage
Some fair tomorrow's spotless page.
Lord, as the days shall come and go
In courage let me stronger grow.

Lord, as the New Year dawns today
Help me to put my faults away.

Let me be big in little things;

Grant me the joy which friendship brings.

Keep me from selfishness and spite;

Let me be wise in what is right.

A happy New Year! Grant that I

May bring no tear to any eye.

When this New Year in time shall end

Let it be said I've played the friend,

Have lived and loved and labored here,

And made of it a happy year.

The Happy Hangover

Jack wakes up with a huge hangover after attending his company's Christmas Party. Jack is not normally a drinker, but the drinks didn't taste like alcohol at all. He didn't even remember how he got home from the party. As bad as he was feeling, he wondered if he did something wrong.

Jack had to force himself to open his eyes, and the first thing he sees is a couple of aspirins next to a glass of water on the side table. And, next to them, a single red rose! Jack sits up and sees his clothing in front of him, all clean and pressed. He looks around the room and sees that it is in perfect order, spotlessly clean. So is the rest of the house.

He takes the aspirins, cringes when he sees a huge black eye staring back at him in the bathroom mirror. Then he notices a note hanging on the corner of the mirror written in red with little hearts on it and a kiss mark from his wife in lipstick: "Honey, breakfast is on the stove, I left early to get groceries to make your favorite dinner tonight. I love you, darling! Love, Jillian"

He stumbles into the kitchen and sure enough, there is a hot breakfast, steaming hot coffee, and the morning newspaper all waiting for him. His son is also at the table, eating. Jack asks, "Son... what happened last night?"

"Well, you came home after 3 in the morning, drunk and out of your mind. You fell over the coffee table and broke it, and then you puked in the hallway, and got that black eye when you ran into the door!"

Confused, he asked his son, "So, why is everything in such perfect order and so clean? I have a rose, and breakfast is on the table waiting for me?"

His son replies, "Oh THAT! Well, Mom dragged you to the bedroom, and when she tried to take your pants off, you screamed, 'Leave me alone, I'm married!'"

MEET OUR NEW YEAR'S

Baby

The Territory, and the BVI Health Services Authority welcomed its first baby for the year at 9:07 am on New Year's Day. Our 2023 bundle of joy was born to mother Najeebah Lynch Hackshaw, and father Nathan Hackshaw.

He weighed 3.85 kg and was presented with gift baskets from the National bank of the Virgin Islands and BVIHSA.

Celebrate the New Year With Inspired Cocktail Creations

Let's pay homage to the holiday spirit by crafting some seasonal spirits of our own. We're going to explore infusing vodka with fruits and herbs.

Undoubtedly, you've seen flavored vodkas on liquor store shelves, but have you ever thought of making your own infused vodka? Not only is it very inexpensive, but say goodbye to artificial flavorings and colors and hello to absolute control over the ingredients.

It's surprisingly easy to do. All you need is a large, wide-mouth glass jar with an airtight lid (not plastic, unless you're making plastic-flavored vodka!), a fine mesh strainer, cheese cloth or coffee filters, and a funnel. Save empty vodka bottles to refill with your infused creations later. Of course, you'll need vodka and ingredients to infuse, but we'll get to that in a moment.

First, I'd like to share how to make cheap vodka taste more like top shelf vodka. There is no sense in paying for top shelf vodka for our purpose. The secret is filtering vodka with a charcoal-activated water filter, like a Brita or PUR brand filter pitcher. Just designate a new filter exclusively for vodka, because you won't want to use it for water after you use it for vodka. Activate the new filter, as per manufacturer instructions, then drain the water. Proceed by pouring the vodka through the filter just as you would water. You'll want to run it through several times. I find seven times is the charm.

Will this method fool a sophisticated palate into thinking it's top shelf? Nope. Will it improve the results when infused or mixed in a cocktail? Absolutely.

How to Infuse Vodka -- Into a clean glass jar with a lid, place your infusion ingredients, top off with vodka and close lid. Shaking the jar daily, infuse for 12 hours to 7 days. Different ingredients require different amounts of time to infuse, and then there's adjustment to your personal taste.

I have guidelines below, but taste your infusion every day until you're satisfied with your results. It's a tough job, but somebody's got to do it.

When you're happy with the flavor, strain the infusion material out and decant into a clean bottle or jar. Enjoy immediately or store in a cool, dark place for up to 12 months.

To sweeten your infusions, simply add simple syrup. But please don't buy it! Make it. It's called simple syrup for a reason. In a saucepan, simmer equal parts sugar and water until the sugar has dissolved.

Here are some ideas to get you started.

BERRY VODKA

- 1 to 2 cups berries -- strawberries, blackberries or raspberries, or a combination
- 3 to 4 cups of vodka
- Wash berries and roughly chop. Add to vodka and infuse for three to seven days. Sweeten to taste.

CITRUS VODKA

- 2 cups lemons, limes, oranges or grapefruit, or a combination
- 2 cups vodka
- Wash and slice fruit, then add to vodka. Infuse for three to seven days. Sweeten to taste.

CRANBERRY LIME VODKA

- 1 cup chopped cranberries
- Juice and zest of one lime
- 3 cups vodka
- Add fruit to vodka. Infuse for one to two days. Sweeten to taste. (Pictured.)

HERBED VODKA

- 1 or 2 large sprigs of basil or another favorite herb (dill, mint, sage, tarragon, etc.)
- 3 cups of vodka

Combine the herbs with vodka for two to seven days, tasting frequently. Serve with tonic or soda or make into martinis or the best bloody mary ever.

As this year winds down, let's raise a glass to a New Year filled with fresh starts and new beginnings. Cheers!

New Year Resolutions – Do They Really Work?

Do you remember that feeling at the beginning of a new school year starting with brand new school supplies? That sense of freshness and new beginnings as you open up the first page of an untouched notebook and hold a new sharp pointed pencil poised to make the first mark? Usually the first few pages of my notebook would have my best neatest writing, which then deteriorated as the time went on. My desire to do my best, reaching for higher standards of excellence dwindled as the day to day routines of daily living took me back to standards of mediocrity and just getting by.

The beginning of a new year is often the time when we reflect on the year that has past and see things that we would like to change and do differently. A new year represents a new start, a new chapter and a clean unwritten page in life. There is a desire to live better, reach new goals, and make a fresh start. We make New Year Resolutions and promise ourselves that this year we will do them. We summon up our will power and determination and step into the New Year with the greatest and sincerest of intentions.

New Year Resolutions have become almost the joke of this season. It is well recognized that those well intentioned New Years resolutions often fail as quickly as they are made. One common resolution is the goal to lose weight by eating sensibly and exercise. It is the busiest time of year for Fitness Centers, but statistics have shown that new memberships are rarely kept up more than a month or two. One thing that New Year resolutions do show is that good intentions are not sufficient to make permanent changes in our lives.

Why do most New Year Resolutions fail?

We are motivated by pleasure in life rather than pain. Many resolutions involve some kind of deprivation of pleasure whether it be eating, or stopping a bad habit. We know that although we enjoy our bad habits, their consequences are ultimately not beneficial for either our health or life. The desire for instant gratification for short term pleasure is far stronger than any mental logical sense of reason in most cases. We know in our head what we should do, but doing it when it opposes our immediate desires is tough.

Our mind consists of two parts; the conscious and subconscious mind. Brain activity takes place through neurons. In one second of time the conscious mind uses two thousand neurons, and in that same second the subconscious mind uses four billion neurons. This means that every second there are two thousand neurons making conscious decisions and four billion neurons making subconscious decisions. Which part of your mind has the greatest control do you think?

The subconscious mind is trained by the constant repetition of the beliefs, values and lifestyle that you have taken and lived from an early age. It automatically follows the familiar and well trodden path of well ingrained thoughts, beliefs and behaviors. The subconscious operates from such a well established history that it responds automatically with learned responses and behavior. This is why it is so difficult to create new habits of thoughts and behaviours, the subconscious mind will always try to revert to old familiar way of doing things, because they have become so automatic. The conscious mind has a hard job to make permanent changes because of the power of those four billion neurons. It can be achieved, but it takes hard work by the conscious mind to retrain our subconscious mind.

It is said that you need to do something at least 30 times to create a new habit. For changes in life long learnt behaviors it can take far more than that. For example have you ever got in the car and driven to your destination, and not really remember the journey there. You have been driving using the learned behaviors of your subconscious mind, and your conscious mind has been thinking about something else. However if you were to drive in a different country whose custom is to drive on the other side of the road your conscious mind would be working very hard to correct the learned and instinctive behavior of your subconscious mind. In fact the whole experience of driving on the other side of the road feels wrong and uncomfortable, and if you lose your concentration you could find yourself automatically going back to familiar patterns and become a road hazard!

HERE ARE TIPS FOR WORKING ON THOSE NEW YEARS RESOLUTIONS:

- Don't expect instant results - it's a process
- Plan small attainable steps to your desired goal
- Celebrate each successful step towards your goal and work on it until it feels automatic before progressing to the next
- Don't give up when you experience relapses and set backs
- Review your new steps and goals several times daily.
- Visualize what reaching your goal will look and feel like
- Write down your steps and goals
- Find people who will support and encourage you on the way.

Q. A good friend of mine was telling me that I'd probably like the Canadian detective series "Cardinal." Where can I watch it if I live in the United States? — H.C.

A. "Cardinal" aired on CTV out of Canada for four seasons, from 2017 to 2020, with six episodes in each season. It was a crime series based on the novels by Giles Blunt about a detective named John Cardinal, set in the fictional town of Algonquin Bay. The first season was based on Blunt's novel, "Forty Words for Sorrow," about the murder of a young girl. Subsequent seasons involve a different novel/mystery.

Fans of British crime dramas like "Broadchurch" or the U.S.-based show "The Killing," set in the Pacific Northwest, will likely find "Cardinal" right up their alley. It also stars Billy Campbell, who has been acting in Hollywood since the 1980s and also played Darren Richmond in "The Killing."

I've always enjoyed watching a series or film set in a snowscape while I sit in my warm living room with a cup of hot tea, and "Cardinal" does not disappoint. Filmed on location in Ontario, temperatures dipped to -40 degrees F. Executive producer Julia Sereny told RadioTimes.com that it was so cold sometimes that the "sound recordist could not get his truck started" and that windows on vehicles cracked.

You can watch all four seasons of "Cardinal" currently on Hulu.

Q. "Desperate Housewives" is my all-time favorite show. How many years has it been off the air? Any chance of a reboot? — P.I.

A. Last December 31, the official ABC "Desperate Housewives" Twitter account featured a photo of the cast with the cryptic statement "Desperately* waiting for 2022." Because 2022 would be a full decade since the show concluded, buzz started circulating that the soapy drama was next in line for a reboot. Unfortunately, it never came to fruition, at least not yet.

A couple months earlier, former cast member Eva Longoria said about "Desperate Housewives" creator Marc Cherry, "We both just think there's so much more to do there, and I would be the first to sign up if he did anything."

Billy Campbell ("Cardinal" and "The Killing")

Former onscreen spouses Teri Hatcher and James Denton recently guest-starred on "Fantasy Island" as a couple whose marriage is put to the test as contestants on a twisted game show featuring a quicksand trap.

Q. How is Billy Joel doing? I heard he had some health issues and had to cancel some concerts. I really hope he tours again. — J.A.

A. The six-time Grammy-award-winning piano man recently had to postpone his last performance at Madison Square Garden this year due to a lingering virus. The new date is June 2, 2023, unless the hometown New York Knicks make it into the NBA Playoffs at that time. Joel has been playing MSG every January since 2014. He's also supposed to perform with Stevie Nicks at L.A.'s SoFi Stadium in March.

Radiofrequency Ablation Considerably Lessens Back Pain

DEAR DR. ROACH: I suffered a lower back injury in 2001, with crushed and bulging discs in the L2, L3, L4 and L5 vertebrae. After over a year of physical therapy and drugs, my pain doctor tried an epidural injection, which did not work, and then suggested I try something new at that time called a radiofrequency ablation (also called a lumbar facet rhizotomy). It's done as an outpatient surgery and may have to be repeated.

I've done so many that I opt for no anesthesia. It works great; I even get up and drive myself home! I've learned to limit my activities, so as to not cause more damage due to my disabled pain receptors.

I have been pain- and drug-free for almost 20 years. The treatment usually lasts nine to 14 months, and when I feel the nerves starting to fire again and cause me pain, I just schedule the procedure and have them ablated again.

Whenever I see somebody walking funny due to back pain, I mention this procedure to them. Several of them have come back and thanked me for saying something.

Doctors don't seem to promote this procedure, and I don't understand why. It's clearly another option besides surgery and addictive medication. It's been a win-win for me, as opposed to surgery.

Please help promote this wonderful yet "unknown" procedure. I'm still living an active normal life at 64, 20 years after I was told I may end up in a wheelchair. — M.T.

ANSWER: Radiofrequency ablation of the nerves in the back has been used since the 1970s in people with intractable back pain. The procedure uses an electrode that heats the nerves in the facet joints of the back, stopping pain conduction. This is done when the treating physician is sure that the pain is coming from these particular nerves, called the lumbar medial branch nerves. This procedure is not appropriate for all types of back pain. Typically, the physician will perform a block using an injection, and if this is successful, but short-lived (as is often the case), a radiofrequency ablation is considered.

When it works, a year of relief is typical (sometimes shorter or, for a few, up to three years) before the nerve fibers regenerate, at which point the procedure can be repeated. Burning or numbness around the injection site is the most common adverse effect.

Effectiveness rates in the published literature range from 50% to nearly 100% in small trials of carefully chosen subjects. However, a large randomized trial of this procedure in subjects who were being treated with an exercise program and psychological support did not show a significant improvement in pain or function.

I agree with you that this procedure is safer than surgery, and while I'm glad it's worked for you, the evidence of benefit from the highest-quality trials is lacking.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual questions, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu.

Mexicalli Comfort Casserole

If you celebrate Cinco de Mayo, here is a great dish to celebrate with!

- 4 ounces extra-lean ground sirloin beef or turkey breast
- 1/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chunky salsa (mild, medium or hot)
- 1/4 cup reduced-sodium tomato juice
- 1/2 cup cooked elbow macaroni, rinsed and drained
- 1/2 teaspoon dried minced garlic
- 1/4 cup (3/4 ounce) crushed Frito-Lay Baked Tostitos Tortilla Chips
- 3 tablespoons (3/4 ounce) shredded Kraft reduced-fat Cheddar cheese

1. Heat oven to 350 F. Spray 2 (12-ounce) custard cups with butter-flavored cooking spray.

2. In a large skillet sprayed with butter-flavored cooking spray, brown meat and onion. Add salsa, tomato juice, macaroni and garlic. Mix well to combine. Evenly spoon mixture into prepared custard cups.

3. Sprinkle 2 tablespoons tortilla chips and 1 1/2 tablespoons Cheddar cheese over top of each. Place custard cups on a baking sheet and bake for 15 minutes. Place pan on a wire rack and let set 5 minutes. Serves 2.

TIPS: 1) Purchase a 16-ounce package of extra-lean ground meat, divide by 4 and freeze 3 portions for future use. Don't forget to date and mark packages. 2) Usually 1/3 cup uncooked elbow macaroni cooks to about 1/2 cup.

• Each serving equals: 247 calories, 7g fat, 19g protein, 27g carbs, 552mg sodium, 92mg calcium, 3g fiber; Diabetic Exchanges: 2 Meat, 1 Starch, 1 Vegetable; Carb Choices: 2.

The objective is to update relevant legislation of CARIFORUM

Member States and develop new legislation as necessary for more effective implementation and operation of the CARIFORUM-EU Economic Partnership Agreement (EPA).

BURNA BOY, CARDI B & OFFSET BOOST JAMAICA AS NUMBER ONE LOCATION FOR MUSIC CELEBRITIES

Kingston, Jamaica; (December 28, 2022): - Minister of Tourism, Hon. Edmund Bartlett has lauded Nigerian International music star, Burna Boy for a stellar performance, which attracted thousands of locals and visitors to the island's capital, Kingston on December 18, 2022. The heightening exposure of Jamaica brought by American Music stars Cardi B and Offset was also welcomed as the celebrity couple vacationed on the island recently to celebrate Offset's birthday.

"I applaud African superstar Burna Boy for his fantastic performance at the National Stadium on the weekend, which was certainly a must-see event for many of our locals, and indeed visitors to the island, who flocked Kingston to attend this massive entertainment offering. Likewise, having Cardi B and Offset here was another big plus too", said Minister Bartlett.

"Entertainment remains an important value-added product which we will continue to utilize strategically within the tourism industry to enhance the sector's growth. In fact, it is one of the passion points of our visitors and one of the many reasons why persons travel to Jamaica yearly. We therefore look forward to many more private-sector-led events in the near future, which will continue to positively impact our tourism sector and the many small and medium entrepreneurs who benefit from them," he added.

The GRAMMY-winning Burna Boy announced his Love, Damini Summer 2022 Tour shortly after his record-breaking, sold-out debut at Madison Square Garden. On December 18, at the National Stadium in Kingston, Jamaica, the Caribbean portion of the tour came to an end with performances by Popcaan, Toni-Ann Singh, and Lila Ike.

"Jamaica continues to be the Caribbean's celebrity playground, with recent visits from other musicians like rappers Cardi B and Offset. There are several others, global celebrities, who have vacationed or are currently vacationing quietly, and they are very appreciative of the relaxed non-paparazzi like Jamaican culture, thereby allowing them to vacation in peace. Villas are the priority, but we do have many who have or are currently staying at known luxury hotels, Airbnbs and even some all-inclusives," said Delano Seiveright, Senior Advisor and Strategist in the Tourism Ministry.

"On our part, we will continue to develop and promote our country around the world in order to encourage other major international celebrities to visit the island," Seiveright added.

According to recent projections, Jamaica will see its strongest winter travel season ever this year, with anticipated record arrivals of 950,000 stopover visitors and 524,000 cruise passengers respectively. This is the highest volume of visitors the country has ever experienced — nearly 1.5 million for the entire season.

In tandem, Jamaica is expecting a boost this winter tourist season with US$1.4 billion in tourism earnings anticipated. A total of 1.3 million air seats have been secured for the period and a full recovery of cruise tourism is expected.

US House Again Rejects Kevin McCarthy as New Speaker

Rep. Jim Jordan, left, talks with Rep. Kevin McCarthy in the House chamber as the House meets for a second day to elect a speaker and convene the 118th Congress in Washington, Jan. 4, 2023.

CAPITOL HILL — Republican leader Kevin McCarthy's bid to become the next speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives appeared increasingly unlikely Wednesday, as a group of conservative lawmakers withheld crucial support in multiple rounds of voting.

McCarthy, a 16-year lawmaker from California and the House Republican leader in the session of Congress that ended Tuesday, has long sought to become speaker. But he lost three votes on Tuesday in his quest for a 218-vote majority in the 435-member chamber, and he failed in three more rounds of balloting on Wednesday.

McCarthy fell short by as many as 17 votes Wednesday, as conservative members of his own party continued to say he was not ideologically strong enough to lead.

It has been 100 years since neither a Republican nor a Democrat won the House speakership on the first round of voting to become the leader of the lower house of Congress.

The fourth vote came hours after former President Donald Trump publicly called for McCarthy's election as House speaker, a lawmaker he has described as "My Kevin."

"It's now time for all of our great Republican House members to vote for Kevin, close the deal, take the victory," Trump said on his social media network.

Trump warned the slim Republican majority in the 118th session of Congress to "not turn a great triumph into a giant & embarrassing defeat. It's time to celebrate, you deserve it. Kevin McCarthy will do a good job, and maybe even a great job — just watch!"

But Trump's new statement, following calls in recent days to some of the dissidents opposing McCarthy, had no effect. The former president, who has announced his 2024 campaign to try to reclaim the White House, had for weeks voiced his support for McCarthy.

Republican Representative Lauren Boebert said on the House floor

Wednesday that Trump "needs to tell Kevin McCarthy that, 'Sir, you do not have the votes, and it's time to withdraw.'"

President Joe Biden answered a question about the stalemate as well, telling reporters at the White House before the fourth vote, "With regard to the fight over the speaker, that's not my problem.

"I just think it's a little embarrassing that it's taking so long ... and the rest of the world is looking," he said. "They're looking at, you know, we need to get our act together."

Republicans will hold a narrow 222-212 majority in the House, with one current vacancy, requiring McCarthy to win at least 218 votes to claim the speakership, assuming all 434 lawmakers vote. Under a provision in the U.S. Constitution, he also would become second in line of succession to the presidency.

Nineteen Republicans, many of them in recent weeks expressing the view that McCarthy was not conservative enough to lead House Republicans, voted for other Republican lawmakers in the first round of voting, including representatives Andy Biggs and Jim Jordan, two vocal opponents of Biden.

In the second round of voting, 19 dissident Republicans voted for Jordan, even though he nominated McCarthy as his choice to lead the majority Republican caucus in the new two-year House session. On the third round, another Republican, Representative Byron Donalds of Florida, a second-term lawmaker, switched his vote to Jordan after voting for McCarthy on the first two ballots.

In the Wednesday balloting, 20 lawmakers in the anti-McCarthy bloc voted for Donalds to become the new speaker in the fourth, fifth and sixth rounds.

Democratic Representative Hakeem Jeffries of New York, with all 212 Democrats voting for him, led the voting for the speakership, although he has no chance of winning the job because no Republicans plan to vote for him to help him reach the 218 majority.

On the fourth and fifth ballots, 201 Republicans voted for McCarthy, 16 short of the 217 he needed because in both rounds of voting, one lawmaker voted "present," lowering the required majority total by one vote.

The 57-year-old McCarthy, a staunch conservative himself, has sought for years to lead the House. Over the past several weeks, he has met repeatedly with his Republican foes to secure their support.

McCarthy offered to change the House's governing rules in several ways, including to permit snap votes to declare the speakership vacant and select someone else if they did not like his policy stances or how the party caucus was conducting its promised investigations of Biden and his administration.

Whomever the Republicans eventually elect will replace outgoing Democratic House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, who remains a House member and cast her votes for Jeffries.

Democrats, who have been locked in a 50-50 split with Republicans in the Senate the past two years, gained an edge in the nationwide congressional elections nearly two months ago and will hold a 50-49 majority in the upper chamber, even after onetime Democratic Senator Kyrsten Sinema announced she is now an independent but would not change her voting philosophy. She usually has voted with the Democratic lawmakers and Biden.

Choosing a House speaker occurs even before representatives are sworn into office for their two-year terms. Lawmakers have called out the name of their choice for House speaker from the floor of the chamber, and the same scenario will continue to play out in succeeding rounds of voting until someone wins the speakership.

ATHLETE

Adaejah Hodge leads Top 12 sports stories from 2022

By Dean "The Sportsman" Greenaway

What a year of firsts 2022 was for our sportsmen and sportswomen.

Adaejah Hodge had a Carifta Games debut like no athlete in BVI history since participation began in 1976 and few others regionally have ever done in the history of the event that began in 1972, in their debut.

Hodge won the U17 Girls 100m in 11.29 seconds; the Long Jump with a windy leap of 6.20m (20'4") between rounds of the 200m after lurking in 3rd place, then bagged the 200m final in 23.42 seconds into a -3.0 mps wind, to claim the coveted Sir Austin Sealy Award, for the most outstanding boy or girl in the region's premier U20 Championships, now in its 49th year. "It's great to win three gold medals, I'm proud of myself. I've been working hard for this moment and for it to come through, is a great relief," Hodge said. "It's really special. I think I brought really great pride to my country and I'm happy for that."

BVI Spring Regatta returns

San Diego Calif., resident Victor Wild, dominated the 49th BVI Spring Regatta's Caribbean Sailing Association (CSA) 1 division on his Boltin 52 "Fox," just as he won the same division in the St. Thomas International Regatta a week earlier, as the event returned from a 2-year hiatus.

"It's just been an amazing race week. God listened and brought us a little more wind that I anticipated but the sailors loved it," Regatta Director Judy Petz said. "The waters were filled with the most fabulous boats from around the world."

Dispute closes Ellis Thomas Downs

Just over a month after the August Festival horse races were held for the first time in six years, featuring a card that honored horse owners, trainers and investors, a dispute between government and the Thomas family brought an abrupt end to horse racing. Premier Natalio Wheatley said there were some "anomalies" noted during the rent review.

"Certainly the family has indicated they want an increase in the rent for the track," Wheatley said. "The increase in what was described to me in one instance would have been 15 times what we pay now. There are some questions about the sustainability of that. So these are some of the challenges we have."

BVI Women 2nd in ECVA Volleyball

BVI Women overcame their No 9 seed and claimed a silver medal falling to defending champions St. Lucia—their first time in the ECVA Volleyball tournament since 2014. "To get to the medal stand after 19 years, is definitely an achievement for volleyball in the territory. Every member of the team was instrumental in our success," team Captain Henrietta "Henrie" Alexander said.

McMaster's double Repeat

After an injury knocked him out of the World Athletics Championships 400m Hurdles semis, Kyron McMaster went on to become the first Commonwealth Games repeat champ in over 50 years, then repeated as NACAC champion in 47.34 seconds—the 2nd fastest time of his career.

Women Football in Concacaf

BVI fell to Haiti 21-0, in the historic first CONCACAF Women's FIFA World Cup qualifying match ever played in the territory. "To be honest, we need to work on understanding our positions more in order to play better and understand each player," Goalkeeper Britney Peters said.

Leroy wins Pan Am Masters Cycling title

Phillippe Leroy pedaled to a memorable 48 seconds victory in the Pan Am Masters Time Trials Cycling Championships in Baranquilla, Colombia. He had a winning time of 49 minutes 04.27 seconds over his Colombian challenger, Gerardo Moncada. "I cycled as hard as I could, paced myself very well, my bike computer didn't work so I was judging by the feeling in my legs making sure I didn't go too hard," Leroy, 62 said. "I was very pleased, completely exhausted when I finished."

Phillip bags CUSA Swimming gold

Florida International University Swimmer Elinah Phillip, won the Conference USA 50m Free, in a personal best and National Record time of 22.33 seconds, breaking her previous best of 22.41 at the Big Ten Championships swimming for Rutgers.

Women debut in Commonwealth 3x3 Basketball

Joy Victor, Shaliqua Fahie, Keithrece Smith and Mahkyala Pickering, made their Commonwealth Games Women's 3x3 debut against England, Canada and New Zealand, after also debuting in the Caribbean U23 Games in Guadeloupe.

Brathwaite in World 60m semis

After winning NCAA D1 Indoor Championships 60m silver for Indiana in a school, national record and personal best 6.52 seconds, Rikioi Brathwaite became the first BVI male to advance to the semis in the World Indoor Championships in Belgrade, Serbia, when he finished second in his heat in 6.66 seconds. An injury kept him from running in the semis.

Gumbs bag Caribbean Games medal

After becoming the 1st BVI male athlete to qualify for the NCAA DI Championships in two field events for Northwestern State, Djimon Gumbs bagged a Shot Put silver medal in the inaugural U23 Caribbean Games held in Guadeloupe.

D'Moi Hodge helps Vikings to NCAA Tourney

D'Moi Hodge helped the Cleveland State Vikings to its 2nd NCAA D1 Men's Basketball Tournament, where they fell to Houston, 87-56.

Jones siblings repeat as Josiah's Bay Surf Cup champions

By Dean "The Sportsman" Greenaway

Tiara Jones and her brother Teshawn Jones, repeated as Josiah's Bay Surf Cup champions, while Alex "Woo" Dick-Read snatched the legends crown during the 4th edition of the event that attracted 55 participants on Boxing Day.

"It was fun. It was good. I'm happy," Jones told Island Sun Sports. "I don't go out there thinking whether I'm gonna win or not. I go out there just trying to get a wave, ride it out and do my best."

Jones said she was surprised with her repeat victory. "You never really know. It's a change. You could go out and you could be really good and you don't get the waves," she explained. "I was happy with the waves that I got, so I was pretty stoked with that."

In joining his sister as a repeat champion, Teshawn said last time he did think that he did that well but still won. "This year was a lot more fun, the waves were like 10 times better and it was more like having competitive fun stuff," he said. "There were a lot of good surfers. I've known a lot of them for a long time. I've seen where they've come from and everyone have just evolved from white water to where they are now, so it's pretty cool to see that."

Dick-Read said while the competition was difficult, there were plenty of waves. "It's a dying swell from the last three weeks of crazy waves, it's long gaps, the sets come again so it's difficult to line up knowing where to sit and what board to use," he explained. "The board I was using was a really short one, designed like a longboard so I could paddle fast and I think it worked. It was good fun. It was good for everybody today. It's perfect. The small kids. Us old guys. It's ideal."

Event organizer and BVI Surf School instructor Steven Howes, said he thought the event went very well and they had a good turnout. "A lot of people stayed even though it was torrential rain, I don't know where that came from, but we hung in there and we've had the best waves we've had in the last couple of weeks," he said. "So, it went really well. There was a lot of good surfing today. Teshawn Jones stepped up to the plate and won the Groms. His sister (Tiara Jones) did really well; she won the women's and there were just a lot of people having fun out there."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Start preparing now to make sure you get the credit you're due for all the effort you put in to get a project off the ground. A new challenge emerges in a few weeks.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You're charging full steam ahead on the job — and that's fine. But take time to bask in the excitement of a new year, and be grateful for all you accomplished during this one.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A former detractor resists joining your ranks just yet. Give them time to learn more about what you're doing. Meanwhile, devote more time to friends and family.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Be careful not to be goaded into a tiff by someone who might be looking for a fight. Remain cool as you make your exit. Be assured that others will rally to your support.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Kudos on getting the well-deserved Lion's share of the rewards for a job well-done. Now you can take a breather from your workaday duties and spend time with your family.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You enjoy a quick spurt of renewed energy just in time to meet that upcoming deadline. A potentially romantic situation looms. How it develops will be up to you.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Watch out for distractions that could cause delays and leave you running twice as fast to finish your work. Then go ahead and have fun. You deserve it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might prefer to work on current tasks on your own. But be open to a potentially useful suggestion from someone who admires you and wants to help.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Avoid rushing full gallop into that volunteer project without knowing what's expected of you. Take things a step at a time as you begin to find your way.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Good news: You should begin to feel more comfortable expressing your emotions. This will go a long way in helping you with that personal situation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) An old friend gives confusing signals. Best advice: Don't assume that things will necessarily work themselves out. Ask questions and demand straight answers.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A new relationship needs time to develop. Be careful not to let your emotions flood your natural sense of caution. Meanwhile, check out that new job offer.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your sense of right and wrong sometimes causes you to come into conflict with others. But you invariably come out ahead.

The Garden Bug

In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, the Festa de Iemanjá is held every January 1 to honor the sea goddess who protects sailors and provides fish for all fishermen. Dressed in white, the people make their way to the sea's edge as they dance, sing and play music. Baskets filled with colorful flowers and small statues of Iemanjá are carried through the crowds. The fishermen load their boats with all the offerings, and the people follow them out as far as possible as the fishermen set out to sea to present the gifts to Iemanjá to seek her favor. - Brenda Weaver

Trivia Test Answers

EVERY 21 SECONDS, SOMEONE IS DIAGNOSED WITH DIABETES

Diabetes is the fifth deadliest disease. Since 1987 the death rate has increased 45 percent. In 2002; diabetes claimed an astonishing 224,092 lives in the United States alone. It is believed that the number was actually higher since most deaths of the elderly had multiple chronic conditions associated with their death including diabetes. Many people do not know that they have diabetes until they develop other life threatening conditions such as: heart disease, high blood pressure, blindness, kidney damage, nervous system damage, dental disease, sexual dysfunction, and a number of other complications. When you have diabetes the above complication are side illnesses, diabetes is this root of all of your medical problems and must be under control for you to recover from the side illnesses period! Being checked by your physician on a regular basis is absolutely necessary for your overall quality of life. If you do not know that you have diabetes, there is no other way of knowing that you have this deadly disease without a check up.

There are several different types of diabetes such as, type 1, type 2, and gestational diabetes. Type 1 is the body's inability to produce insulin, people with type 1 are insulin dependent for the remainder of their lives, and they must also keep close track of their diets. Type 2 is the most common form of diabetes; diabetes is a chronic disease and has no cure. While an estimated 14 million people have been diagnosed with diabetes it is also estimated that close to 6.2 million are unaware that they have this deadly disease. In 2005 1.5 million new cases were diagnosed in people age 20 and above. If this dangerous trend continues it is believed that 1 in 3 persons will develop diabetes in their lifetime. It is also estimated that 41 million Americans have pre-diabetes today.

Pre-diabetes is a dangerous condition in itself, this is when the glucose level in the blood is not high enough to be diagnosed as diabetes - yet damage is being done to your internal organs. The body cannot handle any unsafe level of sugar or glucose in the blood for any extended period of time.

Diabetes is the body's inability to use the sugar called glucose. Glucose is created when the body breaks down food for energy. The hormone insulin opens up the cells in the body to allow glucose to enter into the cell and be used as fuel. In diabetes the cell never opens up and the glucose flows through the blood stream causing high blood sugar levels. With diabetes the body either does not make enough insulin or is resistant to its own natural insulin. High blood sugar can lead to very serious complications. Heart disease is the leading cause of premature death in people with diabetes. Diabetes is the major cause of leg and foot amputations in Americans today. Infections are much harder to control in people with diabetes, they are at greater risk of complications and death due to infection. The high risk factors leading to type 2 diabetes is too much body fat and high sugar intake!

Diabetes is on the rise; Americans are eating poorly and are lacking physical activity and this is starting to really show in the children of America. Free-radicals are very active in a person with diabetes. They attack a number of cells at once because diabetes causes an abnormal immune function due to high glucose levels in the blood and organs. Free-radicals are the reason you see so many different complications or side illnesses in this disease. Free-radicals are molecules or atoms that are missing an electron, free-radicals attack healthy cells trying to steal an electron from them. Chronic inflammation is also a major player with this disease and in the side illnesses. Chronic inflammation is being called the silent killer by doctors and scientists. All of the above diseases need medications to help regulate the disease, but you need to know this, medications cause free-radical damage, and this damage is called side effects. All medications can cause side effects. So eating properly to help your condition is absolutely essential for your life.

Think of free-radicals as a school of piranha, they feed on everything in sight, they are not picky eaters. Free-radicals cause healthy cells to become mutated or deformed and they attack any cell they come in contact with. Now if they do manage to steal an electron then that once healthy cell, in turn, becomes a free-radical doing what was done to it. This is a vicious cycle, basically there is a war going on inside your body. You cannot see or feel this war but it is there, and one day it will show its ugly head in the form of a serious disease or illness. You must be on the defensive and feed your body what it needs in order to combat these little piranhas. Inflammation is a bully, after the free-radicals have done the damage the inflammation is sent by the body to help heal but it is unable to heal mutations and deformities so the deformed or mutated cells begin to feed on the healthy inflammation cells. Now the inflammation cells are deformed or mutated and become chronic inflammation cells, the chronic inflammation cells begin attacking your healthy tissues and cells. You have the power to take your health into your own hands and put a stop to the damage now. As we know anti-oxidants help the body fight against free-radicals, anti-oxidants are molecules or atoms that has an extra electron. It gives this extra electron away and in turn the free-radicals stop attacking healthy cells. Science has proven that ALL diseases and illnesses are caused by free-radical damage and the vast majority have chronic inflammation as their side kick. There are risk factors for all diseases but free-radicals and chronic inflammation are the source and cause of major complications. Free-radicals cannot be avoided; they are in air and water pollution, in the junk foods we eat, and caused by traumas and injuries. Free-radicals are a part of life; they even affect the aging process itself.

Anti-oxidants are essential for health, plants contain about 1,000 to 1,500 anti-oxidants, a diet of fruits and vegetables is essential, supplements are key, vitamins and minerals contain high numbers of anti-oxidants. You need to do some research and try to find fresh supplements; they tend to lose their potency the longer they sit on the shelf.

Anyone with diabetes or even pre-diabetes must re-think their diets, moving towards fresh and properly cooked foods, STAY AWAY FROM FAST FOODS AND ANYTHING WITH HIGH SUGAR CONTENT. Taking in a large number of anti-oxidants everyday, is essential to help your body recover and maintain better overall health. Type 2 diabetes can be controlled with diet and exercise, as long as you begin now. Pre-diabetes can be reversed. There are also super charged, super powerful anti-oxidants in nature called Xanthonenes. Xanthonenes have the power to defeat a larger number of free-radicals at one time, due to strong carbon bonds that make the molecule stable. Each Xanthone performs a specific biological function inside the body unlike regular anti-oxidants. Universities and scientists have been studying xanthonenes for over 20 years. Scientists have found that xanthonenes are able to relieve a variety of problems and also help in the improvement of serious conditions. This is the reason that more and more universities and scientists are becoming involved in the research on these amazing xanthonenes. Two hundred xanthonenes have been identified in nature, and 41 are in the mangosteen fruit alone, you can compare that to the Aloe Vera plant that contains only one xanthone. The mangosteen fruit also contains 25,000 anti-oxidants. How can that help your health? THE MANGOSTEEN FRUIT HAS THE HIGHEST NUMBER OF ANTI-OXIDANTS AND XANTHONES EVER FOUND IN ONE SOURCE. One thing about xanthonenes you need to know is that they must be consumed in their natural form.

People with diabetes are ruled by their medications and checking their blood everyday, they must see their doctor on a regular basis in order to keep their blood sugars under control by adjusting their medication. If their sugar goes too far up or too far down, massive damage to the internal organs and tissues is done and even the brain is affected, and can cause coma. DIABETES is a very deadly disease, but with the right food intake it does not have to be, TAKE CARE OF YOUR SELF.
